POLICE from all over the county were called to deal with 20 suspected illegal immigrants discovered in the back of a re-frigerated lorry in Haverhill on Tuesday.

Officers arrested one woman and 19 men in Icen Way at around 12.40pm on suspicion of entering the country illegally.

The ambulance service was called by the police to check over the suspected illegal immigrants and the woman, from Iran, was taken to West Suffolk Hospital with abdominal pains.

The other 19 were taken into custody, with 13 being taken to Martlesham and the rest to Bury St Edmunds.

Of the men, 11 were from Iraq and eight from Iran. Three of the Iranians and one of the Iraqis claimed to be minors and have now been passed into the care of social services for their ages to be assessed.

Inspector Peter Ferrie, of Haverhill police, said: "We had to call officers from literally all over the county. Twenty is a huge amount of people."

"All the Haverhill officers were there, and officers from Sudbury, Stowmarket, Bury St Edmunds, Forest Heath, Ipswich and Felixstowe."

A total of 17 police officers attended the incident.

Insp Ferrie added: "The officers were counting them all out. It was quite incredible."

The Home Office Immigration Enforcement Unit was contacted by Suffolk police and have taken over the investigation.

Insp Ferrie said the driver of the lorry had also been arrested.

The Home Office confirmed a 53-year-old Spanish man had been arrested on suspicion of facilitating a breach in UK border security.

He has since been released on bail.

This was one of the largest numbers of suspected illegal immigrants to be found in Suffolk.

Now there's no excuse for not cleaning up after your dogs!

A HANDY new dispenser for dog walkers who forget poo bags has been installed at East Town Park.

Homefield Road Veterinary Surgery has paid for the dispenser and the bags, and park rangers employed by the borough council will refill it when necessary.

Vet Richard Frost said: "There is no excuse for not cleaning up after your dog even if you have forgotten a bag, as they are now freely available at the park."

If you have information about an irresponsible dog walker email customer.services@westsuffolk.gov.uk or phone (01284) 763233.

Family celebrate 40 years on market

A FAMILY-RUN market stall celebrated its 40th anniversary last weekend. D K Fresh Cut Flowers was set up by Darrel Keen Senior and his wife Brenda in 1975. It is now run by their son Darrel Keen Junior and his partner Nikki. They are helped on the Friday and Saturday market by their children Kirsty, 15, and Kieren, 13. Last Saturday the family were joined by mayor of Haverhill Betty McLatchy, and regular customers to celebrate the anniversary. Darrel and Nikki brought along the original 40-year-old trading license and historic pictures of the market were provided by the Haverhill History Society. The couple took over the business from Darrel's parents in 2005 and set up a permanent shop in Haverhill's Queen Street three years ago. Darrel said: "I look back on my life and think how much I love what I do."

Harvey wins award for bravery after a stroke

PRESENTATION: Harvey Tabram with his mum Louise receives his award at Bedford Lodge Hotel in Newmarket on November 20, from Sara Betsworth, regional head of operations for the Stroke Association in the East of England.

A BOY who, at the age of 8, suffered a "devastating" stroke has received an award for his courage and positivity.

Harvey Tabram, now 14, who lives in Castle Lane, Haverhill, suffered the stroke on December 27, 2009.

His mum Louise said: "It was completely random. He's got a lot of health problems anyway, but there was no underlying cause."

Harvey suffers from epilepsy and Louise said the stroke was similar to an epileptic seizure, but her son seemed weaker on his left side, so she called a paramedic.

She went on: "The paramedic thought that he had had a stroke, but it took Addenbrooke's about three days to diagnose it."

"Devastated is an understatement. He's been clawing back his life."

The stroke left Harvey in hospital for half a year. It caused his airways to collapse – meaning he cannot speak – and left him without the use of his left arm. It also left him with a curved spine and unable to walk.

Harvey had operations to reconstruct his airways last January and the January before, and an operation on his spine in August.

He has been learning to walk again.

Louise said: "He's an amazing little man. After everything he's still such a happy little chap."

She is trying to raise awareness of the fact that children can suffer strokes, as it was not something she knew before Harvey was hit by his.

She added: "People regard strokes as something that happens to older people."

Louise nominated her son for a Children and Young People's Courage Award at the Stroke Association's Life After Stroke Awards, to recognise him for the bravery that is going into his recovery.

Harvey was presented with a highly commended certificate at an event at the Bedford Lodge Hotel in Newmarket on November 20.

The certificate was presented by the Stroke Association's regional manager Sara Betsworth.

She said: "A stroke happens in an instant and often changes lives forever. As Harvey and his family know all too well, the condition can strike at any age. We were thrilled that so many of our community in the East of England were nominated to receive a Life After Stroke Award."

"Our regional event highlights the tremendous courage people like Harvey have shown in rebuilding their lives after a stroke, or in helping others to do the same."

Louise said she met parents of three other children at the event who had suffered strokes.

She added: "It was amazing, such a beautiful setting."

"It was quite moving as well, to see all the other people there."

Success in playground campaign

A CAMPAIGN to get a children's playground renovated has found success.

Parents Clare Reeve and Ben Brangwin started a petition in August to get the children's playground in Haverhill's Howe Road renovated.

They said that there was too little equipment, and raised safety concerns over hard ground and sharp corners on equipment.

On November 18, the pair met a borough council parks officer and Tesco community champion Claire Bowden.

Clare says the campaigners were told a council renovation of the playground is planned for April, 2017.

She went on: "With this in mind it seems a waste of resources to add new equipment when it could potentially be taken out again."

Instead, the campaigners are now planning on fundraising to paint the ironwork on the equipment, pressure wash the spongy play areas and tidy up the area.

They are going to hold a meeting in the next few weeks for fundraising ideas, and hope to be working with Tesco to fundraise more in the run-up to Christmas. If you would like to get involved, contact Clare at clare.reeve@outlook.com or Ben at brangwins@hotmail.co.uk.

HEALTH

£6million for youth mental health

YOUNG people in Haverhill will benefit from improved mental health support, thanks to a boost in funding.

Suffolk has made a successful bid for £6 million extra funding from NHS England to improve young people's emotional well-being services.

The money will be used to improve access and create a community-based eating disorder service.

Chair of the county's health and wellbeing board, Cllr Alan Murray, said: "By enabling speedy access to services it means we can address mental health and behaviour issues earlier, reducing the need for intervention later on so that people can get on with their lives."

The bid was made by local authorities, clinical commissioning groups and health and social care partners

NEWS IN BRIEF

Tell your story of working in town

HISTORIANS aiming to compile an oral history of life in the Haverhill workplace have got down to business.

The Haverhill at Work project, being run by the town's Family History Group, kicked off with a drop-in session on November 19.

Now they are holding a session for employees of PYE Telecom and Halliburton on December 10 at 2pm at the Haverhill Arts Centre. This will be followed by sessions for employees of Project, Addis, Gurteens, and more.

Call Brian Thompson on (01440) 712652 for more.

Get 570 hours of free childcare

THE county council is telling parents of 2-year-olds to claim the 570 hours of free childcare they are entitled to each year.

Families of children eligible for up to 15 hours of childcare a week will be receiving a "golden ticket" in the post from Suffolk County Council. The ticket has a unique reference number that can be used at any childminder or nursery rated "good" or "outstanding" by Ofsted.

DEVELOPMENT

Planned £5m retail park could create 250 new jobs

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A PLANNED £5million retail park in Haverhill could be open by early 2017 and deliver hundreds of jobs.

The timescale for the development – which will house a Lidl, a Pets at Home, and a Home Bargains – was revealed during a presentation to Haverhill Town Council.

The former Project Office Furniture factory site, on the corner of Ehring-shausen Way and Stour Valley Road, was bought by Cambridge developers, the Howard Group, in 2008 and has been empty for six years.

Colin Brown, development manager at the Howard Group, and Rob Shrimplin, of Shrimplin Brown developers, spoke to councillors about the plans on Tuesday night.

They said that £5million investment is being put into the site, and it is set to generate 250 full-time and part-time jobs.

When asked about the timescale for delivery, Mr Brown said: "We are intending to start the procurement process prior to planning consent. If all goes well we will be on site in May or June and complete in the early part of 2017. Pets at Home's trading year runs through to the end of March and they are keen that we deliver this by the end of March, 2017."

INVESTMENT: an artist's impressions of the proposed retail park on the former Project Office Furniture site

A planning application will be submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council within the coming weeks.

Mr Shrimplin said: "It will complement rather than compete with the town centre. It encourages people to shop in Haverhill and once they are in Haverhill to remain in Haverhill.

They will do more shopping on the High Street.

"It's about clawing back expenditure which is currently leaking to other places. The idea is to try and improve Haverhill's retail offer so people shop here."

As well as Pets at Home, Lidl and Home Bargains, there will be one other large store at the front of the site, but the occupier has not yet been announced.

There is no on-site cafe planned apart from Lidl's in-store bakery.

The Howard Group also has plans to develop the rear of the site, which may become office space or smaller retail outlets.

FUNDRAISING: Clare at the start line with the Mayor of Ely, Lis Every

Clare runs in memory of her mum

A HAVERHILL woman has completed a fundraising run in memory of her mum.

Clare Clark took part in Arthur Rank Hospice's festive fun run in Ely on Sunday.

Clare's mum was diagnosed with terminal lung cancer in 2010, and received care from the Arthur Rank Hospice in 2011.

Clare said: "I felt very emotional finishing the run because I did it for mum. 'I know she would be very proud of my determination and courage this year. My parents had thought that hospices were places for dying but mum was able to see that they help you to live.

"I will always be grateful for the care and support mum got there."

BUSINESS

Town site joins enterprise zone

A HAVERHILL site is part of a new "enterprise zone" – which means it can lower business rates and attract new companies to the town.

The Haverhill Research Park is one of five sites included in the "Cambridge Compass" enterprise zone which was unveiled in Chancellor George Osborne's Autumn Statement and Spending Review yesterday.

The research park will get a business rate discount of up to 100 per cent for five years, and the Greater Cambridge Greater Peterborough (GCGP) LEP will be able to hold onto this discount for 25 years.

Chairman of St Edmundsbury Borough Council John Griffiths said: "I am delighted that our Enterprise Zone bid for Haverhill has been approved.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

"St Edmundsbury has been involved from the outset in helping push forward the Haverhill Research Park and our ambition to help create up to 2,000 new skilled jobs for people living in Haverhill.

"We have already worked with the Greater Cambridge Greater Peterborough LEP to secure funding for this site and have collaborated with them once again to make this now successful bid.

"At the same time we have been lobbying Government for greater control on business rates locally, and the creation of this new Enterprise Zone should enable us to offer further incentives to help achieve our vision for Haverhill.

"The last piece in the jigsaw is the actual details in the Chancellor of the Exchequer's spending review but we look forward to the delivery of this exciting project for Haverhill, West Suffolk and beyond."

Nic Rumsey of Jaynic, the developers of Haverhill Research Park, said: "This is fantastic news for Haverhill Research Park, and for Haverhill generally.

"The benefits that being part of the Cambridge Compass Enterprise Zone brings will undoubtedly add to our competitive edge within the Greater Cambridge area and we look forward to pushing forward with this as soon as possible."

The other sites in the zone are in Waterbeach, Ely, Cambridge and Northstowe.

CRIME

Appeal after village home break-in

A RESIDENT in a village near Haverhill woke in the early hours of Wednesday to find two intruders in her house.

Police are appealing for information after the incident, which took place at around 2.15am at a property in Thurlow Road, Withersfield.

After discovering two men on the landing in their home, the resident shouted at them. The men ran down the stairs and out of the house.

Both of the intruders are described as around 5ft 7in tall, of medium build and wearing dark-coloured three-quarter-length coats and trousers and a hat.

It is not believed that anything was taken during the incident.

Anyone with information should call DC Tom Darville at Bury St Edmunds CID on 101 quoting reference 15544/15.

Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Please swim with us

IF you're looking for an accessible fitness challenge in the new year, then how about swimming the distance of the English Channel – in your own local swimming pool?

Diabetes UK is inviting people to sign up to its Swim22 challenge and swim 22 miles – the distance across the English Channel – over the course of three months.

The challenge runs from 22 February to 22 May 2016, giving you plenty of time to complete the challenge at your own speed. Whether you're a one-day wonder or want to take it at a more leisurely three kilometres a week, it is a great way to shape up in the new year. You can even fundraise with your friends and family by splitting the distance with teammates.

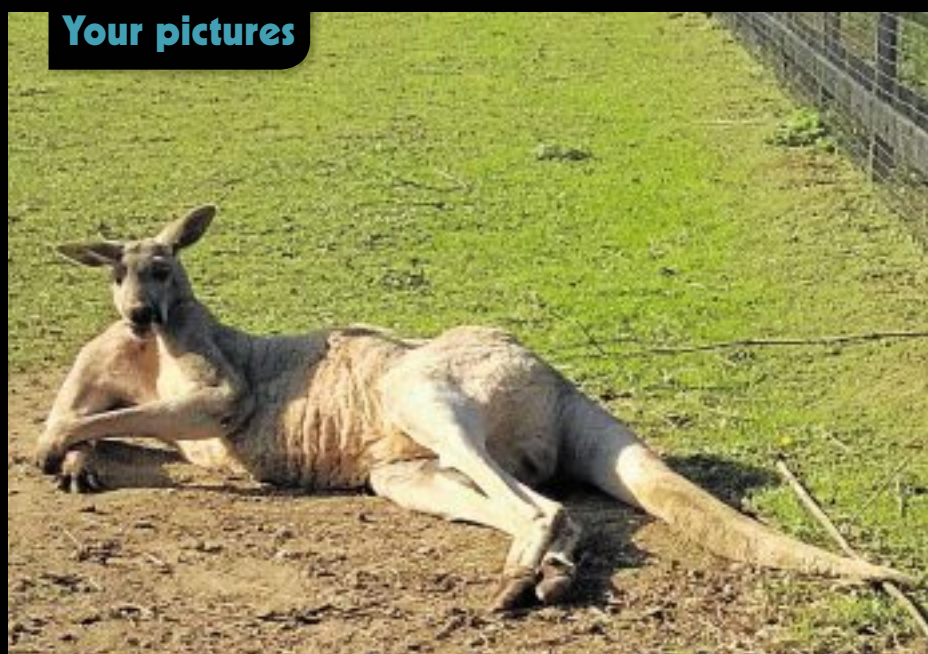

Money raised through sponsorship will help us to fund research into diabetes, campaign on key issues, and offer education and support to more of the 3.9 million people in the UK who are living with the condition.

Swimming is a great way of keeping fit and active, and can help you to maintain a healthy weight which is key to reducing your risk of developing Type 2 diabetes. People with diabetes can also help manage their condition through getting plenty of exercise and eating healthily.

To sign up visit www.diabetes.org.uk/swim22 or call 0345 123 2399.

■ CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL
Following the highly successful festival two years ago there is to be a repeat event over the weekend of Saturday 12th and Sunday 13th December at Holy Trinity Church. Monies raised from the weekend will go towards the upkeep of the church. Friday 27th November is the deadline if you wish to decorate a tree so that the trees can be ordered. To take part groups/individuals are asked to pay £20 for a five foot tree, complete with stand and lights, ready to be decorated in the church. Local businesses or individuals who would like to sponsor/donate towards the cost of the Festival should contact Liz De'ath 01223 893027 camb.blues@talktalk.net or Cazzy Walshe 01223 891443

walshefamily@btinternet.com
Over the course of the weekend the church will be open for visitors to visit the festival with an entrance charge of £1.50 for adults and 50p for children over 5 years. There will be stalls selling seasonal home-made produce, a raffle and a 'bottle' stall (Saturday only). Refreshments will also be available. The weekend will end with a Carol Service for all the family on the Sunday at 5pm to which everyone is invited.

Please help to make this year's festival a success. Everyone's contribution will be appreciated.

■ SINGERS' CONCERT – Singers Christmas Concert will take place on Saturday 19th December, 7.30pm. Choruses from Messiah, Vivaldi's Gloria, Brahms and the usual mix of carols.

ACTION GROUP: Kevin Betts, Nathan Loader, Dave Adkin, James Halpin and Jay Waite

A GROUP of residents are calling for jobs to be created in Haverhill at a rate of one for every new home built.

The action group says jobs are not being created at the same rate as housing and are concerned residents could lose their jobs due to competition as the population increases.

They are also worried about the knock-on impact the lack of jobs would have, which they say would see more people commuting out of Haverhill to Cambridge or Bury St Edmunds. This, they say, would mean more traffic and more pollution.

Kedington Action Group's concerns come in a 39-page illustrated letter to St Edmundsbury Borough Council's planning department detailing their objections to the Great Wilsey Park development in north-east Haverhill.

The 2,500-home development's masterplan was approved in September.

Nathan Loader, an action group member who is also a Kedington parish councillor, said: "The main aim of the group now is to get the best outcome. We know a planning application is due very shortly and we want to raise awareness of the issues so that they can be addressed."

HANNAH MIRSKY

One of the issues raised in the letter is the perimeter of the development. The letter states that the edge of the development spills over a ridge that currently hides Haverhill from sight, and that this would have "undue consequences" for a landscape of "high visual sensitivity".

They are also asking for the town's existing "green edge" to be replicated.

A spokesperson for St Edmundsbury Borough Council said the masterplan was adopted in September and a planning application had now been submitted which would shortly be available for people to view and comment on.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Chance to see Santa at school's festive fair

A HAVERHILL primary school is holding a Christmas fair next Friday.

The event will take place at Clements Primary School on Friday, December 4, from 5pm to 7pm. There will be a raffle with a first prize of £200. There will also be a Santa's grotto, Christmas crafts, tombola, and refreshments including Christmas cake, all with carols playing in the background.

Radio star will turn on town Christmas lights

STAR of Radio 2, Janey Lee Grace, will be turning on this year's Haverhill Christmas lights.

The event will take place at 6.30pm on December 4 in the town's market square, with a special guest appearance from the radio presenter.

There will also be late-night shopping in the High Street.

CUTS

County to make £72million savings

SUFFOLK County Council will have to make cuts of £72 million over the next two years – which could include reducing residential care for people with learning disabilities and cuts to the fire service.

Next year, 2016 to 2017, the council will be making £47.5 million in savings, and in 2017 to 2018 it will have to make £24.5 million.

The first budget proposals were set to be discussed by the council's scrutiny committee at its meeting today.

The committee was to look at making the savings through a "greater collaboration with partners across the public sector", as well as working with communities and voluntary groups.

The proposed cuts include total savings of more than £21million from the adult and community service budget and £1.8million fire services cuts, which include axing one of the fire engines based at Bury St Edmunds.

The adult and community service savings would include the Supporting Lives Connecting Communities programme, which involves finding community alternatives to residential care for people with learning disabilities.

The proposals suggest cuts to libraries, possibly including reducing opening hours or mobile library services in rural areas, and reducing councillor locality budgets from £12,000 to £8,000.

A council spokesman said cuts to support for the young and elderly had been "purposefully kept to an absolute minimum to protect the most vulnerable people" – with council reserves set to be used to support the services.

Suffolk County Council's cabinet member for finance, Cllr Richard Smith, said: "This is a challenging budget but I know it will deliver the savings we need to find over the next two years to ensure we continue providing essential services for residents across the county."

He said that he was "confident" there would be no effect on frontline service delivery, but the views of residents and local partners would be sought to help "shape future service delivery and identify where savings can be made".

A final decision will be made in February, 2016.

Visit Santa at garden centre

VISITORS to a garden centre next month will be able to meet Father Christmas himself.

The grotto at Sturmer Nurseries in Church Walk, Sturmer is being run by the Haverhill Lions Club.

Phil Cheesmur, president of the Lions said: "We are very pleased to be able to bring Santa to Sturmer Nurseries so children can have fun seeing him in his grotto and tell him what they would like for Christmas – and raise monies for local charities at the same time."

Santa will be in his grotto from 11am to 3pm the first three weekends in December, and a visit costs £4 per child.

Our town needs its own anthem – campaigner

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

HAVERHILL has many sources of civic pride, from the arts centre to the Spirit of Enterprise roundabout sculpture, from the market to the town council. But one campaigner says there's a crucial thing lacking – its own anthem.

Chairman of campaign group Rail Haverhill, Heike Sowa – together with dance school head Lisa Mason – is looking for musicians to compose a song celebrating the town.

Heike said: "The lyrics should really have in mind Haverhill: the golf course, the leisure centre, the schools, the parks. Haverhill has lots to offer."

She is hoping the song, performed in public, will stir Haverhill residents' pride and draw attention to Rail Haverhill's campaign to bring a train line to the town.

She continued: "One of the lines could be: 'You are so beautiful, Haverhill, but we are missing the railway, we are missing the link to all the other towns!'"

One of the purposes of creating the song is so that Lisa can create a dance with railway-inspired movements to it, to help raise awareness of the Rail Haverhill campaign.

Heike described her ideal anthem as: "Something you can really sing – a bit pop, but not too harsh."

One Haverhill composer who's been asked to be involved is music teacher Lynn Bond, who says that more musicians are needed.

She said: "It needs more enthusiasm from people to be able to build something together. It needs musicians to be able to create a proper tune."

"You can't have just one person doing it: it needs a drummer and a guitarist, a singer for the words."

"You've got to find somebody that's got the right enthusiasm and the time."

Heike said musicians, composers and lyricists from all backgrounds and with any level of experience are welcome to get involved in the project.

Anyone interested in helping to write lyrics, play music or compose the song can contact Heike on 07721 209164.

CRIME

Warning over bogus callers

RESIDENTS should be on the alert in Haverhill after reports of suspected common posing as water company employees.

A resident in the town posted on Facebook earlier this month that someone had knocked on their door asking to check the water supply, and had become unpleasant when refused access to the property. This was in the Ash Grove and Beech Grove area of the town.

A spokesman for Suffolk police said: "Suffolk Constabulary urges residents to remain vigilant."

"Please advise older friends or relatives to make them aware of these bogus approaches."

A spokesman for Anglian Water said: "If there were ever to be a problem with someone's water and we had concerns we would hand deliver a card to them, and if possible we would contact them by telephone as well.

HANNAH MIRSKY

"All the messaging would have our logo on and a telephone number that the customer can call to confirm details."

"Unfortunately, the number of cases of distraction burglary goes up during the winter months, and they often target the elderly and vulnerable."

"It is rare for an Anglian Water employee to come directly to your home and request access."

"If we do come then all our staff carry identification cards and will be happy for you to take some time to confirm who they are. Simply call us for free on 03457 145 145 and describe the person at your door and we can confirm that they are a genuine member of our staff."

"And if you are in any doubt about a caller our advice is to say no and close the door."

Suffolk police also suggested asking a friend or neighbour to check out a caller before opening your door.

They advise calling 999 if you think a rogue trader is outside your door.

Suffolk Trading Standards advised residents to lock the back door and windows if they think a bogus caller is on their doorstep, to look through a window or peephole to check who the caller is, and to ask for an identification card.

For more advice or to report an incident call Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 or Suffolk Police on 101.

FUNDRAISING: Team Stepping Stones presents a cheque to St Nicholas Hospice Care

Team raises £3,500 for hospice

A TEAM who walked miles in memory of a councillor has presented a £3,500 cheque to charity.

The 26-strong group of Haverhill women took part in St Nicholas Hospice Care's Girls' Night Out in September. The challenge involved walking 11.2 or six miles around Bury St Edmunds overnight.

The team was founded by Elaine McManus and named after the nursery she runs, Stepping Stones. Her husband Paul McManus, a borough councillor, died from pancreatic cancer in June.

Elaine said: "The walk was amazing." The team presented a cheque at the hospice's Burton Centre in Camps Road this month.

HAVERHILL HEROES

Nominate an act of kindness

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

WHAT'S the kindest thing someone you know has done? Some Haverhill teachers want to hear all about it.

The Castle Partnership Academy Trust (CPAT) is sponsoring the Act of Kindness category of the Haverhill Heroes awards. The Act of Kindness category aims to recognise anyone who has given their time and resources to support someone in need.

Ele Stoneham, a Castle Manor teacher who is head of CPAT's all-through curriculum, said: "We're proud to sponsor this important award because it represents the positive impact we can have on other individuals and our society, which is true to our values at the Castle Partnership."

"An act of kindness isn't necessarily a big gesture. It is the small things that are being selflessly done that can have a tremendous impact on someone else's life."

To nominate someone, fill in the form on the right and drop it in the boxes available at the Haverhill Arts Centre and Haverhill Library, or post it to: The Haverhill News, Winship Road, Milton, Cambridge, CB24 6BQ.

Alternatively, visit cambridge-news.co.uk/haverhill and fill out the form available there. You can also read the descriptions of all the categories on the website.

CITIZEN'S ADVICE

Help at hand to deal with debt

IN the run-up to Christmas, as financial pressures from cold weather and the festive season set in, the News is running a series of columns from Citizens' Advice Suffolk West on how to save money this holiday season. This week, the experts let you know what to do if you need a debt relief order.

Q. I'm struggling with around £18,000 worth of debt and I wondered whether I'd be eligible for a debt relief order (DRO). I know the limit used to be £15,000 but I heard that it was increasing soon. Is that right?

A. A DRO can be a way to help people out of unmanageable debt. From October 1 the debt limit for a DRO increased to £20,000 so you might now be eligible.

You could qualify for a DRO if you don't own your own home, have up to £1,000 worth of assets, a car worth no more than £1,000 and have £50 or less left each month once you've paid your essentials.

Debts such as magistrate's court fines, student loans and child support maintenance aren't covered by a DRO but credit card debt, overdrafts, loans and rent arrears are, so check first whether you're eligible.

The DRO lasts a year and during that time you don't have to make any payments towards most debts included in your DRO. Your creditors can't force you to pay off the debts either.

At the end of the DRO period your debts will be written off but you'll still be responsible for paying off any debts that weren't included in the DRO.

It's also important to consider that while a DRO can help you deal with your debt, it may affect your credit rating and if during the 12 month period you borrow more than £500 you have to tell the creditor about your DRO.

At Haverhill Citizens Advice, we are able to offer free and impartial advice and can help you choose the best option if you are struggling with debt.

Haverhill CAB can be found at Haverhill House, Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9EE.

We offer a drop-in service for advice on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, from 10am to 1.30pm.

Going bright blue for charity

A HAVERHILL man has had a radical makeover to raise money for charity.

Daniel Dagley, 34, of Old Rope Walk, has dyed his hair and beard bright blue for Cancer Research.

He was put up to the challenge by his friend, George Ripp, who said: "I said to him: 'Would you dye your hair and beard bright blue?' and he said: 'Yes - if you raise £75 for charity'."

The pair have already smashed their initial target and made it to £200, but are still hoping for more sponsorship.

You can donate at www.virginmoneygiving.com/GeorgeRipp.

Daniel's hair was dyed for free at DNA Hair Salon.

Rose Upholstery's treasure trove

ROSE UPHOLSTERY:
Unique bespoke service

FROM its Haverhill workshop, Rose Upholstery has been offering a unique upholstery service for more than 30 years now.

Based in Homefield Road, in a workshop that is a treasure trove of furniture, bright and vibrant fabrics and tools, the family company has been operating since first setting up shop in 1976, in Gidea Park.

Couple Clare and Trevor Hyett own and run the business, and both take great pride in the personalised approach they offer, upholstering and working their magic on customers' treasured items of furniture with practically no machinery apart from sewing machines and the presses.

"Everything's cut by hand. Every job is different and you can't get a machine to do that," says Claire. And it is these bespoke methods that often see Rose Upholstery's customers bringing in furniture items that they've bought from large retailers, to improve, repair or simply make more luxurious, as well as older items in need of an update or complete refurbishment."

And if you just can't find the right colour or style of fabric to match your home's interior, then Rose Upholstery can help.

They have thousands of fabric and leather samples to choose from, and are confident that they have something that will appeal to all tastes.

Indeed, people come from afar for the firm's services, which start with something as simple as re-stuffing flattened sofa cushions.

Clare and Trevor are always delighted to welcome customers who want to visit, and bring along their item of furniture – it might be a dining chair, a headboard or another item of furniture – and pick out their preferred fabric. They pride themselves on having famous customers from Sir Alex Ferguson to entrepreneur Theo Paphitis and even royalty.

So why not join the ever-growing list of happy clients and get your furniture spruced up by Rose Upholstery? You still have time before Christmas to update or re-style your dining furniture. The staff would love to help you choose new fabrics and have a chat about what you would like to bring new sparkle to your chairs.

For a competitive quotation, contact Rose Upholstery at Unit 7, 5 Homefield Road, Haverhill, CB9 8QP, or call (01440) 766999. Alternatively browse the Facebook page: just search "Rose Upholstery".

A dance of desire

A FRENCH love story brings passion and pirouettes to Haverhill Arts Centre's screen this week.

The Bolshoi Ballet will perform The Lady of the Camellias, the story of beautiful courtesan Marguerite, who has tuberculosis and wears a white camellia when she is well enough to be available to lovers.

After the young bourgeois Armand falls in love with her, the pair move in together – but his father is shocked by the scandal and attempts to end the relationship.

This recorded broadcast will be screened at Haverhill Arts Centre on Monday, December 7, at 12pm.

Tickets (£15.00, £12.50, £10.00) can be bought from the Box Office (01440 714140) and www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk.

The funny side of politics

Do you ever get that feeling like you're not supposed to be somewhere? The one where you're always expecting someone in a uniform to come up and give you a telling-off?

It's not just you. That feeling, says Mark Thomas, is a sign of the way public spaces are being taken away from the people – and he wants us to take them back.

The 52-year-old Londoner describes his work as “a mixture between theatre and stand-up and journalism and performance art”.

He doesn't just stand up on a stage and tell a few jokes: he runs round the country making noise and mischief about political issues, then tells the audience all about it.

“I've just always thought that politics and comedy go together,” he says. “The disparity between truth and fiction is inherently comic.”

He might have started off writing stand-up in Wakefield during the miners' strike, but the issue he's exploring in his latest show, Trespass, is who our public spaces belong to.

He says a change has taken place even within the last 20 years, with private companies taking over publicly-owned space.

“I think it affects how we relate to public space, whether we think we have ownership over it, the sense that it's ours and we can use it and explore it,” he says.

He's full of examples: the part of the Thames footpath that is inside a private building, or County Hall in London, which used to be a council building and now “you can't protest there, you can't busk there without a licence”.

He goes on: “Instead of this assumed right of way, there's this ‘oh, are we allowed to do this?’, and that's a huge sea change. Private security forces are bringing in their own laws.”

“It's been happening over the last 20 or 30 years, and it's particularly to do with gentrification. The way in which shopping malls and precincts have taken over: the idea of a market as a public space has gone.”

Hannah Mirsky catches up with Mark Thomas, a stand-up comedian with a difference, ahead of his show in Haverhill ...

It's a bleak picture, of our freedom in public spaces being eroded, our sense of ownership being cut away. Is there anything we can do to change it then, to take back control? What Mark Thomas does is go out and make mischief.

In Oxford, for example, he responded to laws forbidding begging, busking and pavement arts in an eight-mile patch of the city centre: “We created ‘beggar traps’ with local artists; we drew chalk lines around the places you weren't allowed to draw.”

He's organised a punk rock gig on a riverbank and created a comedy club in the indoor part of the Thames footpath.

These are the kind of stories you can expect from Trespass: switched-on mischief, an irreverent, playful protest.

He hopes it will inspire audience members to “use the most imaginative ways they can” to get their voices heard.

The show was originally created for the Edinburgh Fringe, but is being updated as Mark goes on performing more acts of playful protest.

He promises me there's going to be a week of mischief before his Haverhill gig next Thursday, but what exactly he's doing is kept under wraps – the only way to find out is by going to see the show.

If you're reading this and thinking that this all sounds a bit too serious for a Thursday night, just remember it's still a stand-up gig.

“The bottom line is, it's a really good show,” Mark says. “You get a laugh, a smile, a minor insurrection, and occasionally sexually aroused.”

Mark Thomas, it seems, can get his audience stirred up in more ways than one.

■ Join the arts centre for a live broadcast from the Kenneth Branagh Theatre of THE WINTER'S TALE on tonight at 7pm. Shakespeare's well-loved play has been rejuvenated starring Kenneth Branagh as Leontes and Dame Judi Dench as Paulina in this famously intricate and entertaining tale about how envy, jealousy and obsession can be overcome through forgiveness and redemption. Let's all try harder as Christmas approaches ... As you can imagine with its stellar cast, tickets have sold well, contact the arts centre if you don't want to miss out.

■ Come and re-live some truly great guitar hits with THE GUITAR LEGENDS SHOW on Friday, November 27, at 8pm. It will feature classic tracks from the early 50s right up to the present day from the world's most legendary guitarists including Hendrix, Clapton, BB King, Santana, Gilmour, Jimmy Page, Gary Moore, Brian May and more. This is a gig to remember, tickets are cheaper in advance, form an orderly queue!

■ Marc Robinson returns with A TOUCH OF HOLLY AT CHRISTMAS on Saturday, November 28, at 7.30pm with Gavin Stanley as Billy Fury and Steve Halliday as Elvis. Unfortunately the arts centre has but a few tickets left!

■ Colette's Entertainment School is performing its show DREAM.BELIEVE.ACHIEVE – THE SHOW at the arts centre on Sunday, November 29, at 7pm.

■ MARK THOMAS returns to the arts centre on Thursday, December 3, with his new show TRESPASS which carries on from where Mark's previous show 100 Acts of Minor Dissent left off. It is his usual mix of theatre, stand up, activism, a dash of journalism and a dollop of mayhem. Mark asks the question: if the ramblers of the 1930s were here now what would they do to open up the cities? How do we turn the skyscrapers and corporate squares into our playgrounds? He sets out to try and carve a small space in the urban world where mischief and random chance can lurk. The show starts at 8pm and is only suitable for 16+ years.

■ Join the arts centre for the annual CRAFT FAIR on Friday, December 4, from 5pm to 8pm and Saturday, December 5, from 9.30am to 3.30pm to find that Christmas present with a difference, not available in the shops. Entry is free, another bonus ...

■ On the cinema front THE PROGRAM (15) on Tuesday, December 1, at 7.30pm revolves around seven-time Tour De France victor Lance Armstrong. In this fictionalised account, the cyclist takes to drugs initially for idealistic reasons, but as success follows, the cover-up becomes ever more intricate. Reel Culture RADIATOR (12A) showing on Wednesday, December 2, at 7.30pm is a poignant portrait of family life, tinged with black comedy and heartbreak. Leonard and Maria have spent 40 years in a remote Cumbrian cottage that has now become a prison, crammed with the junk of a lifetime and over-run with mice. Their middle-aged son arrives from London to take control but Leonard is not about to go gently. Finally, the arts centre has an autism-friendly screening of PAN (PG), a magnificently inventive take on J. M. Barrie's beloved tale, on Thursday, December 3, at 10am. Believing that he'll eventually meet his mother "in this world ... or another", Pan finds himself in a fantastical land, where he teams up with young James 'Captain' Hook to defend various outlandish characters from the evil pirate Blackbeard.

■ Events to look out for include the Haverhill Silver and Haverhill Youth and Community Bands on Sunday, December 6, at 4pm with their annual Family Christmas Concert, a recorded broadcast by the Bolshoi Ballet of The Lady of the Camellias on Monday, December 7, at midday, and a NT Live recorded broadcast of Jane Eyre on Tuesday, December 8, at 7pm.

■ If you are still looking for that ideal Christmas present look no further, the arts centre's theatre vouchers are very popular at this time of year!

Volkswagen Golf GTE is Green Apple winner

VOLKSWAGEN has achieved outright victory in the prestigious Green Apple Awards for one of its most highly praised new models – the Volkswagen Golf GTE.

The Green Apple automotive awards – now in their fifth year – are bestowed by The Green Organisation, a not-for-profit group which invites entries from across the industry. As has become the custom, the awards were this year once again presented at the Houses of Parliament in London.

The innovative Volkswagen Golf GTE triumphed in its class – “electric hybrids or pure electric vehicles” – as well as taking the overall title of Green Apple Champion 2015 in the influential awards, voted for by automotive experts from the Midland Group of Motoring Writers.

The Golf GTE is powered by a combination of petrol engine and electric motor. Capable of returning up to 166mpg, and with CO<sub>2</sub> emissions measured at just 39 g/km, the innovative plug-in hybrid model has already scooped a series of prominent automotive industry awards including the Green category in the annual BusinessCar Fleet Technology Awards.

Priced from £33,755, excluding Government Plug-In Car Grant, it offers up to 204PS for genuinely spirited performance, merging GTI dynamics with e-Golf electric credentials. At the touch of the ‘GTE’ button, the electric motor and 1.4-litre TSI petrol engine combine to deliver a 0-62mph time of 7.6 seconds and a top speed of 138mph, where the law permits. Maximum torque of 350Nm is available from just 1,600rpm and, when fully charged in all-electric mode, the Golf GTE has an electric range of up to 31 miles. When electric and petrol combine, the total range is 580 miles.

One Midland Group judge said of the winning Golf GTE: “It’s engineered like a Volkswagen, feeling solid and safe, while the hybrid system returns some superb figures when driven like a hybrid should be. For those days where there’s an empty country road it turns into a proper GTI, handling the extra weight with aplomb and proving you don’t need to make many compromises to produce a viable green choice.”

Welcoming the success of the Golf GTE in the 2015 Green Apple Awards Alex Smith, director of Volkswagen UK, said: “The Golf GTE is a clear winner, with an unbeatable mix of spirited GTI-style performance and exceptional economy. The car showcases Volkswagen’s progress in the area of plug-in hybrid technology and stands as a real testament to the engineering strength and driving appeal of our cars.”

DUSTER: ‘Shockingly affordable’

And Dacia Duster is Small SUV eco-winner

THE Dacia Duster has won the Small SUV class at the fifth annual Green Apple Awards.

The ‘shockingly affordable’ Duster, in dCi 110 4x2 guise, was voted into first place thanks to its efficient performance, value for money and high specification.

Marks were awarded by judges for the way a car drives and behaves in the real world, away from the testing laboratory.

The multiple award-winning Duster has been a part of the Dacia range since the brand’s launch in the UK in 2013 and is the most affordable SUV on the UK market – priced from £9,495 with the Green Apple Award-winning dCi 110 4x2 starting at £11,995. Duster is available in a choice of three trim levels, with 1.6-litre petrol or 1.5-litre dCi diesel engines and in 4x2 or 4x4 set-ups.

4x4s most popular in lively used car sector

THE UK used car market continues to grow, with recent DVLA statistics showing that used car transactions have grown by three per cent year on year during the July to September period for 2015. Year to date used car transactions have also increased, by 4.2 per cent and 225,000 units year-on-year.

The 4x4 segment showed the strongest performance with used sales of large and small 4x4s growing by 9.1 per cent year on year as the UK moves towards winter, and savvy shoppers prepare for weather warnings this week ahead of the threat of heavy snow brought by Storm Barney.

Auto Trader, the UK's largest digital automotive marketplace for buying and selling new and used vehicles, have revealed the Top 10 most searched for 4x4s for July to September 2015. They are:

1. BMW X5
2. Land Rover Range Rover
3. Land Rover Range Rover Sport
4. BMW X3
5. Mercedes-Benz M-Class
6. Honda CR-V
7. VW Touareg

IN DEMAND: The BMW X5

8. Land Rover Range Rover Evoque
9. Toyota RAV4
10. Audi Q5

Auto Trader's retailer and consumer products director, Karolina Edwards-Smajda, said: "The current increasing levels of used car transactions are a by-product of the strong new car registrations that have been experienced over the last few years, with these vehicles now re-entering the used car market.

"Transactions for nearly new cars less than one year old and cars between one and three years old are fuelling the growth, showing an increase of 8 per cent and 15 per cent year-on-year respectively."

Outlander PHEV used sale event now on at Duxford Motor Group

DUXFORD Motor Group, the home of the region's Mitsubishi dealership, is holding a PHEV (plug-in hybrid electric vehicle) sale this week, writes Mike Scialom.

The PHEV range has proved to be a hugely popular addition to the electric car options available in the UK.

"We're selling 10 Mitsubishi Outlander 4x4 2.0 PHEV GX4hs, ranging from 2014 '64 plates at £24,000 to 2015 '15 plates at £29,000, in various colours," says dealer principal Steve Bentinck. "This spec includes leather, sunroof, satnav, DAB and power tailgate. We also have a 15/15 plate GX3h at £23,995.

"We're one of the top dealers in the country for PHEV and the PHEV is still the UK's best selling hybrid. I am a huge advocate of this vehicle! We are one of a few five-star dealers voted by our customers and are eighth in the UK for Citroen."

The Outlander PHEV Event takes place on November 21 to 28 at Duxford Motor Group in Duxford. Buyers during this period are entitled to free servicing via a pre-service plan, plus a £2,000 deposit contribution from Duxford for the majority of PHEVs in the sale (all except the GX3h).

"It's effectively £2,000 off the price," says Steve.

The Outlander PHEV features 148mpg, zero Road Tax and Congestion Charge and a range of 420 miles.

Szary earns recognition with award

DOMINIKA Szary has been honoured for her work with Haverhill Hornets after being named Cresign young community volunteer of the year at the recent Suffolk Sports Awards.

The 16-year-old has been instrumental in the running of the Hornets volleyball club, including setting up and maintaining their website and social media presence, being the main point of contact between the club and the Suffolk Volleyball Association, organising teams to enter competitions and coaching the club's sessions, which are attended by both adult and junior players.

Along with this, she has line-judged and scored at Newmarket adult men's National League matches and was selected for Volleyball England's National Talent Camp, which worked to enhance the coaching skills of young coaches over a weekend in the East Midlands.

Volleyball

"I am extremely honoured and grateful to have received this award, I feel privileged to be a winner of this award," said Szary.

"I'd like to say a huge thank you to Suffolk Volleyball for giving me this amazing opportunity to become a volunteer and, more importantly, the chairman Andrew Whitefield for nominating."

Additionally, she was shortlisted for the Volleyball England young coach of the year award and has volunteered with a number of other organisations in the area across a variety of sports including football, swimming, athletics and basketball.

Szary is also being considered for recognition at the BBC Sports Personality of the Year ceremony, which will be held in Belfast on December 20.

Duo help Rovers to another triumph

HAVERHILL Rovers' rise up the table continued as they secured a 2-0 victory away to Whitton United in the Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division.

The hosts' manager, Glenn Snell, was forced to go in goal due to their regular keeper being injured in the warm-up, which was a sign of things to come.

Blake Kicks, Riki Baker, Simon Newnes, Luke Haines and Ryan Weaver all had chances on Snell's goal in the first half, with Weaver going closest when he went round him before skimming the top of the bar from a tight angle on 33 minutes.

Player-manager Michael Shinn hit the bar from a corner as well.

Another Shinn corner led to the opener on 61 minutes, with Baker poking home after Nick Wilderspin's header had been blocked on the line.

Wilderspin was involved in the build-up for the second, providing the pass for Weaver to finish on 82 minutes.

Rovers aim to keep their impressive run going when they host Brantham Athletic in the Premier Division on Saturday.

Grainger on form to take Turkey Trot win

CHRIS Grainger won the second leg of Haverhill ladies' midweek Turkey Trot.

Grainger scored 28 points, finishing two ahead of runner-up Mary Sail, and Pat Wellstead took third on 21.

Grainger's combined score for the two legs totalled 61, with Sail finishing one behind her in second.

Gerry Wheatley's combined 54 saw her finish third.

The Saturday competition had to be abandoned due to heavy rain.

Andy Fish and Bob Spittle narrowly missed out on a place in the prizes at the latest meeting of the Suffolk Winter Alliance at Southwold.

Haverhill duo Fish and Spittle scored 40 points in the fourball better ball competition, finishing one point behind third-placed pair

Golf

Alex Davey and Ken McCredie, of Stowmarket.

A field of 52 took part, including four professionals, and the prize was won by Sam Forgan (Stowmarket) with a three-under-par 67.

The fourball better ball was won by the Stowmarket pairing of Keith Rooney and Ady Barham with 44.

Miranda McCoy, a representative from St Nicholas Hospice Care, was invited to Haverhill to be presented with a cheque for £1,468.72.

The funds were raised at the Jan Bowers Memorial Golf Day, held in October.

The event was organised by Peter Bowers, a past captain of Haverhill Golf Club in 2007, and was held in memory of his wife Jan, also a member at the club, who sadly passed away in 2014.

The format of the competition was a Texas Scramble with teams of four, played off 1/10th of the combined handicaps.

The winners were John Kennedy, Joe Davis, Ann Thompson and Doug Renyard with a score of 52.4. Bob Spittle, Neil Franklin, Mary Sail and Jack Warwick took second on countback after scoring 54.1, leaving Andy Fish, Dale Mizon, Lyn Fish and Vaughan Mizon to settle for third.

The memorial fundraiser will be run on an annual basis from now on and McCoy thanked Bowers and members of Haverhill Golf Club, on behalf of St Nicholas Hospice Care, for their generous and continued support.

Rampant Haverhill rack up the points

HAVERHILL secured a thumping 90-5 victory over an under-strength Ely II in Greene King Eastern Counties Division Two West.

Haverhill opened the scoring after five minutes through a Sam Holmes converted try, and their advantage was extended when Micky Lansdowne broke clear from 30 metres.

Hamish Stewart pounced for the third try, with Jake Jeffs kicking the conversion.

Two tries from Chris Flannery and one each

Rugby union

from Lansdowne and Paul Bergin made it 47-0 at half time.

Jack Hamilton-Brown got the first of three second-half tries to start the scoring after the break, as Flannery got a second.

Jamie Pawley and Kevin Whittlecraft also touched down, before Lansdowne, who had switched to an Ely shirt, scored for the visitors.

But Holmes sealed the win for Haverhill.
